A CHINESE policeman, against whom a complaint was made by a woman about his going to her house and searching it without a warrant and without saking her permission, was fined $5 by Mr Pollock to-day for disorderly conduct.

A CHINAMAN who was a passenger from Canton on the s. s. Honom on the 24th inst., and who accidentally fell down the hold, has died from the effects of the injuries he sustained. An inquiry into the Goods per Sachsen undelivered after this case will be held by Mr. Wodehouse tomorrow. THREE boatmen who were recently found in possession of $1200 worth of raw opium in less quantities than a chest and without an export permit, were to day fined $200 each by Mr Pollock, the alternative being three months' hard labour. The opium was confiscated by the police. Mu J. Orange, the engineer of the Tytam Water Works, left to day by the Tannadics for Australia on 12 months' leave of absence. As director of the Musical Club: and in other ways, Mr. Orange has made himself very popular in Hongkong, while not a small part of the credit of our new grand water-works is due to him.

THE ninth competition for the monthly Handicap Challenge Cup took place this afternoon and was won for the third time 83 by Mr Shelton Hooper, with a total score of 80 points. Mr C. Ford, who has won the cup twice previously, was second, with a total score of 75. Mr Hooper having won the cup three times, it now becomes The publication of this issue commenced his property. According to the terms of the competition the money prize of $5, which has hitherto gone with the cup, is now taken by the second highest scorer, namely by Mr Ford.

CHAN Po, a Hungham fisherman who is charged with assaulting an old man with a sword and then throwing him into the harbour, was brought before Mr Wodehouse to-day on remand. The complainant, whose life was despaired of when taken to Hospital, said he recognised the prisoner as the man who assaulted him. He did not recognise him when asked the other day, because defendant's mother had come to the Hospital and asked him not to do so. The prisoner was committed for trial at the Criminal Sessions.

Considering the disagreeable state of the weather, the attendance at Mr. Sangster's organ recital yesterday afternoon was fairly satisfactory. The organ programme included among other works the Concert Variationem' by Lux on the familiar theme of Handel's ' Harmonious Blacksmith,' and Lemmens' popular ! Storm Fantasia.' These two numbers were greatly admired, and the powerfully descriptive effect of the latter was exceedingly well brought out. The vocal programme was somewhat disappoints ing, not in quality, but as regards quantity, the duet and chorus 'I waited for the Lord' from Mendelssohn's 'Hymn of Praise' be-Turkestan to French trade and the estaing omitted. Mrs Kenderdine sang with much sweetness and feeling the aria ' Come unto Him, from the 'Messiah;' and Mrs Humphreys' gave a pleasing rendering of Resignation (Cowen). The next recital will be given on Monday, 4th March. THE armament fever has spread to England.

> France and Germany are greating under an ever-increasing military burden; Italy is in financial difficulties on the same account, and now England wants an extraordinary credit of £12,000,000 to improve hernayy. If there be a tithe of truth in what Lord Charles Beresford has written about the condition of our navy, the vote is absolutely required, but it might have been avoided had the money yearly voted by Parliament for the navy been spent in a more intelligent manner than it was. Now that the many will be provided for by this special vote, we trust the authorities at Home will basten on the armaments for Hongkong, Singapore and the other stations that are in a defenceless condition. A question, we observe, was put by Me Shelford in the Legislative Council of the Straits Settlements regarding the guns promised for the defence of Singapore, to which a reply was received that no communication had been received from the Home Government on the subject since August last, when it was stated the guns would be despatched from England early this year. A somewhat aimilar promise was made to us, but we have not seen the guns yet, and we suppose our Covernment is in the same position as Singapore - has had no communication on the subject from the Home Government.

says :- General Boulanger has published a manifesto, declaring that the Boulangist deputies voted against the revision of the Constitution by Congress, considering, this measure a mere comedy.' What the Loulangist party wants is revision by an assembly specially elected for that purpose, and we suppose they were supported by the whole of the Royalist factions and by that section of the Republican party who are opposed to any revision whatever, dreading that it will be of too radical a character. Meantime the Republican party have patched up a Government, which may manage to keep things going pretty smoothly for two or three months, perhaps till the great Centennial exhibition is nearly finished. It is composed of more moderate men than the former cabinet. M. Freycinet, who was a member of the Floquet ministry, has accepted a seat in the new cabinet and will doubtless be the virtual head. THE TIENTSIN-TUNGCHOW RAILWAY. In addition to the fact of the unfortunate fire which destroyed the beautiful 'Choh tu Gate of the Imperial Palace being taken as a warning for the present not to go on with the railway from Tieutsin to Tangchow, another obstacle to its progress has arisen in the representations of 36 villages as to its passing through their lands. The Viceroy there are events always taking place. has directed the company to select a new ronto, less objectionable to the people. They have it is said, traced a new route by I-hing-pu (宜典华) and Peh-ts'ang (北 thence along by the bask of villages and graveyards, so as to give obstructionists as little ground for their opposition as possible. Before the sudden order to delay the work, the necessary capital had been collected, railway plant ordered from abroad, and arrangements made for the soldiers of various camps to work at the line, each body in its allotted section —Shen Pao. The Board of Revenue has presented Tis. 10,000 to the native fire-brigades which came to the rescue, but this has been declined, and as a substitute they have been honoured by the permission to use a dragon flag.

The cost of restoring the Gate as it was before is estimated at Tls. 570,0.0. but the work will not commonce until after the Imperial marriage. It was of ten different kinds of valuable wood, cedar, sandal, cypress, pine, elm. willow, box, which gave it a variegated and brilliant appearance. The guards have been handed over to the Poard of Punishments, and it has been decided, in accordance with the precedent in the case of the burning of the Kientaing Palace in the first year of Kia-king

There is a report that the fire-god himself appeared during the fire, in the guise of an old man in official dress, and warned the officers who were rushing to extinguish the flames, that their efforts would be fruitless, disappearing when they tried to seize him.—Shen Pao.

NEWCHWANG.

It is hardly 'any use giving news of this place, for what we can say is simply a re-

potition of the old story. Starvation everywhere for the poor people. It becomes monotonous, but for actual witnesses the scenes are simply harrowing. Villages of from fifty to three hundred families; all dying for want of the commonest necessaries of life. Every winter there is more or less distress in this, perhaps the poorest province of China, but this has been the worst in the experience of the oldest resident. If any unusual or unexpected misfortune overtakes natives, they are completely done, for they have not the least notion of providing for a rainy day, and twenty-five years of prosperity are c mpletely wasted on the generality of, say, servants in comfortable foreign employment, where, as compared to the pay received in the highest mandarin families, they are in clover. The advantages, as a rule, are continually lost. Even when they don't gamble, and the best Chinese are given to the passion, so much so that it is considered right to allow it some outlet for ten days at new year time, Parents, wife, children, etc., die and have to be buried, or the youth takes a wife. This eventuality might have been put before; alluding to the death. Anyhow, whenever any event takes place-whether marriage, birth or functal-all the savings. if there be any, are squandered away in presents or festivitie. The chances are there are not any savings, so several months of future earnings are spent, and the calf is eaten before its birth. Everything is pawned, and money is borrowed at 5 per cent: interest. 'Maskee' is the order of the day. A woman, as we read in the official Gazette, even sells herself to bury her mother. It is not a question of opium-smoking or drain-drinking, or gambling any of which passions, whether in Chipa or anywhere else, will ruin anyone. but simply the ordinary eyeuts in a man's life. I know a 'boy' who neither drinks. smokes, nor gambles, and who is kept poor by marriages, births and deaths. As for the daily labourer who can earn, in the spring or autumn, when ships are discharging or loading much cargo, say 1,500 to 2.003 cash (11 to two times) - it the rate of Tls. 4.50 a Tls. 6.00 per month ; when he has made enough for a pipe of opium, he enjoys himself, his tattered garments notwithstanding. Generally the ordinary working Chinamau is improvident. and the knowledge brought before his eyes daily, that as he was singing instead of gathering during the summer, he will have to dauce in the winter, and such winter. too, does not improve him. It is just, however, to admit that privations to the verge of starvation are borne with heroic patience. What the quality is that enables a Chinaman to bear with equanimity the greatest troubles that flesh is heir to, would be worth knowing. Is it simply patience or callonsness? An extraordinary instance occurred at the foreign hospital at Moukden, under the care of Dr Christie. A Chinaman presented himself for treatment, and brought his coffin with him. Said he: 'All that our own doctors can do is useless, and I am come to you, not because you can cure me, but just to shew that I will not throw away any chance. The doctor replied, There The joint proclamation issued some time | must be a great operation which may cause C. Daily News' correspondent.
